Lesson Three (3)

7 ARTICLES OF FAITH

Allah Almighty

Now we will learn about the qualities of Allah.

1. Allah is One. He is alone.
2. He alone is worthy of worship. We do not worship pray or anybody else.
3. None is like Him. He is not anyone else.
4. He knows all what is hidden. Nothing can be hidden from Him.

Lesson Four (4)

Story One

The love of One Allah.

Sayyidina Bilal was the slave of Umayyah. Umayyah believed in many gods. When Sayyidina Bilal became Muslim, Umayyah did not like it. He told Sayyidina Bilal to leave Islam and to worship idols. Sayyidina Bilal refused. His master became angry.

Umayyah made him lie on the burning sand in the hot sun. He placed a heavy stone on his chest and said, "Give up Islam or die!" Sayyidina Bilal suffered much pain but he did not give up Islam. He would only say, "Allah is One! Allah is One!" (Ahad! Ahad!)

Umayyah and others took turns to whip him. He was left in the sun to suffer. Sayyidina Bilal would only say, "Allah is One! Allah is One!" Sayyidina Bilal never gave up Islam.

At last Sayyidina Abu Bakr bought Sayyidina Bilal from Umayyah and set him free.

Sayyidina Bilal, was a close and special friend of our beloved Prophet Muhammad (may Allah bless him and grant him peace).

Muslims believe that Allah is One

We will now learn more about Allah.

1. There is only one Creator and Maker – He is Allah.
2. Allah is the greatest and there is no one like Him.
3. Allah is the most powerful and needs no help.
4. Allah is not in need of food or drink.
5. Allah has no children.
6. Allah has no parents.
7. Allah has no partner.
8. Allah was not born.
9. Allah has been forever and will remain forever.
10. Allah alone do we worship.

Lesson Five (5)

7 ARTICLES OF FAITH

Allah Almighty

We will now learn more about Allah.

1. He knows what has happened (Past), what is happening (present) and what will happen (future).
2. He has power over everything. He does whatever He wishes.
3. He alone is the Creator of the Universe (world).
4. He was not created by anyone.

Exercise – Match up the words

Lesson Six (6)

Story Two

We cannot hide from Allah

Sayyidina Umar was the leader of the Muslims. One night he was walking in the streets of Madinah.

As he passed a certain house, he heard voices coming from the inside. Two persons were talking. A mother was saying to her daughter: "let us mix some water with the milk. We can make more money. We are poor. We need the money. Nobody will know what we did."

"No," said the daughter. "It is wrong to mix water with the milk and then to sell the milk. It is against Sayyidina Umar's ruling. It is dishonest!"

The mother said, "Sayyidina Umar is not here. He does not know what we are doing."

"We must obey Sayyidina Umar, even if he is not here," said the daughter. "Besides, he may not know, but how can we hide from Allah? He sees everything, and he knows all."

Sayyidina Umar walked off silently. He was very pleased with the girl.

Allah knows everything – nothing is hidden from His knowledge

1. Allah knows the number of fish in the sea.
2. Allah knows the number of birds in the sky.
3. Allah knows the number of leaves on the trees.
4. Allah knows what happened in the past.
5. Allah knows what will happen in the future.
6. Allah knows what we think.
7. Allah knows the good we do.
8. Allah knows the bad we do.
9. Allah knows when we speak the truth or when we speak lies.
10. Allah knows who we are.

Lesson Seven (7)

Allah Almighty

1. He alone is the real Owner of everything. The benefit and loss of the entire world is in His hand.
2. He gives Life and death.
3. He provides food and drink for all creatures, to humans, animals in the sea, land and air.
4. He himself does not eat and drink.

Lesson Eight (8)

Story Three

The Favourite follower

Sayyidina Junayd lived in Baghdad. He was a very religious person (saint). He had many followers.

One of his followers was his favourite. He noticed that some of his followers were jealous of the favourite one. One day, he called all the followers. He said to them, “each one of you take a chicken and slaughter it where no one can see you. Bring the meat to me. I want to have a special dish prepared for you.”

Each follower slaughtered his chicken in a place where he thought nobody could see him.

All of them returned with the meat except the favourite one. His chicken was still alive! Then Sayyidina Junayd asked him, “why did you not slaughter the chicken?”

The follower replied, “I could not find such a place where no one could see. No matter where I went, Allah could still see me!”

We see from this story that even if no-one is watching, we can hide from people, but no-one can hide from Allah!

Allah sees everything – Nothing is hidden from His sight.

1. Allah sees an ant walking in the darkness of the night.
2. Allah sees the elephant walking in the jungle.
3. Allah sees fish swimming in the sea.
4. Nothing is too far or near for Allah.
5. Allah sees in darkness and in light.
6. Allah sees everything we do.
7. We cannot hide from Allah.
8. Allah sees our good and bad actions.
9. He sees us, but we cannot see Him.
10. Allah sees but needs no eyes.

Lesson Nine (9)

Allah Almighty

1. He does not sleep.
2. He has always existed, and He will always exist.
3. He did not give birth to anyone nor was He born.
4. He has no relationship. He has no mother, father, son, daughter, brother, sister or wife.

Exercise – colour in the mosque.

Lesson Ten (10)

Story Four

A Prayer answered

Once our beloved Prophet Muhammad (may Allah bless him and grant him peace) and his companions (friends) were faced by an enemy of 1,000 people at a place called Badr. At the time the Muslims had only two horses and about seventy camels. They were 313 in number. The place where the Muslims had camped (stayed) had very loose sand, making it difficult to walk and no water to drink. On the other hand, the enemy, besides being great in number, had all kinds of weapons as well as being camped at a place where the ground was very hard. They also had several wells to drink water from.

Our beloved Prophet (may Allah bless him and grant him peace) lifted his hands and made dua unto Allah to help the Muslims against the enemy. Allah answered his dua and caused a rainfall which hardened the ground as well as provided fresh water for the Muslims. This same rainfall caused the ground on the enemy side to become slippery and the water in the wells to become muddy.

The next day Allah helped the Muslims by sending down angels to fight on their side causing the enemy to be totally defeated.

We learn from this that whenever we need anything, we should make dua to Allah!

Allah hears everything – Nothing is kept secret from Him.

1. Allah hears the buzzing of the bee.
2. Allah hears the roar of the lion.
3. Allah hears the silent movement of an ant.
4. No sound is too soft or too loud for Him.
5. No sound is too near or too far for Him.
6. Allah hears everything we say.
7. Allah hears when we pray.
8. Allah hears when we swear or lie.
9. Allah hears the good we speak.
10. Allah hears but needs no ears.

Lesson Eleven (11)

Allah Almighty

1. There is no one like Him.
2. He is free from all faults and weakness.
3. He has no body, He is not like us.
4. He is not in need of anyone. Everything depends on Him.
5. He has every good quality.

Exercise – Colour in the words.

1 – There is no one like

Lesson Twelve (12)

Story Five

Two young pigeons

Our beloved Prophet Muhammad (may Allah bless him and grant him peace) was sitting and talking to his companions (friends). A man came up to them and said, “a wonderful thing happened. I was passing by a bush and heard a chirping noise. I peeped in and saw two young pigeons. I picked them up in my wrapper and walked on. By this time the mother pigeon came and saw the empty nest. She began flying above us. I opened my wrapper and how strange! The mother pigeon came down into my wrapper and sat over the young ones. See! They are still in my wrapper.”

Our beloved Prophet Muhammad (may Allah bless him and grant him peace) saw the birds and said to the man, “go at once and put them back in their nest. A mother has so much love for her young ones. However, my companions (friends), Allah has far more love and concern for his creation.”

Allah loves all His creation – All are equal before Him.

1. Allah loves us more than a mother loves her little baby.
2. Allah loves the poor and the rich.
3. Allah loves men and women.
4. Allah loves people of all colours.
5. Allah made us Muslims because He loves us.
6. Allah loves those who obey (listen) Him.
7. He loves those who are helpful to other people.
8. He loves those who are truthful.
9. He loves those who are truthful.
10. Allah loves those who seek forgiveness when they do wrong.

Lesson Thirteen (13)

Allah Almighty

1. Everything Allah does is for a good reason.
2. No one can see Him with their physical eyes in this life.
3. Sayyidina Muhammad (Sallallahu Alayhi Wassallam), our Prophet is the only one who has seen Him.
4. Muslims shall see Him in the hereafter.
5. His personal name is 'Allah'. He has many other names. These names are called the Asma-e-Husna (the beautiful Names).

Exercise– Colouring.

Lesson Fourteen (14)

Story Six

The blind snake

A gang of robbers were on its way to rob (steal). They stopped at a place where there were three date trees. Two of the trees were green and had fruit growing on them. The third one was dry.

One member of the gang saw a bird flying with fruit from the green tree and taking it to the dry tree. This happened a few times. The robber became curious. He wanted to know what the bird was doing with the fruit. So, he climbed up the tree. He saw a snake at the top of it. The snake was blind, and its mouth was open. The bird was putting dates into its mouth. The robber was surprised and began to cry.

He said, "O Allah! You have caused this bird to provide the snake with food and I am busy robbing others."

The robber saw the kindness of Allah.

The robber broke his sword and begged Allah to forgive him. He told his friends what he saw. They all broke their swords and decided to give up their evil ways.

Allah is the Most Merciful. He does not wrong anyone.

1. Allah is more merciful to us than a mother is to her child.
2. Allah gave us the day to work and the night to rest.
3. Allah created the sun and sends down rain.
4. He provides food and drink for all his creation.
5. Allah is also merciful to the animals in the jungle.
6. He is merciful to the fish in the sea.
7. He shows mercy to those in difficulty.
8. Allah gave us the Qur'an as a mercy.
9. He forgives our sins and rewards us.
10. He is the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy.

Lesson Twenty-One (21)

Divine Books

Allah, The Almighty, revealed many small books including four big books for the control of mankind. These are the four big books.

1. The Towrat was given to Sayyidina Musa (Alayhis Salam).
2. The Zaboor was given to Sayyidina Dawood (Alayhis Salam).
3. The injeel was given to Sayyidina Isa (Alayhis Salam).
4. The Qur'an was given to our beloved Prophet (Sallallahu Alayhi Wassallam). All these books were full of knowledge and wisdom. Muslims believe in these books and respect them. They no longer exist in their original form. These books have been changed. The Qur'an has replaced all these scriptures (books), so Muslims only act upon the Qur'an.

Exercise – Fill in the empty boxes. (As a class)
