WELCOME

Asslamu-alaykum, welcome to volume one of your workbook. I hope you enjoy using this workbook as much as we enjoyed making it. The lessons were taken from Islamic classes taught to kids like yourselves. They enjoyed them a lot and learned a great deal about our beloved deen.

May Allah enlighten your minds and make this the first step to a deep and wonderful understanding of our Deen.

The sections are arranged in alphabetical order. The only rule is that you must only go to the next section after you have finished and enjoyed the first! The key below will guide you through the book.

Parents: This book is a humble effort to put forward some simple, but very essential knowledge about our deen. It is not in the form of a typical text book but more of an interactive workbook. The child works through the booklet and learn at the same time. Some of the lessons might be a bit advanced for the youngest children so parental input is essential.

For immense benefit (inshallah), use this as a platform to improve and develop their understanding of Islam. Encourage the child to learn and practice the lessons.

SURAH AL-ikhLAS

We learn from this surah that Allah is the one and only god of mankind. There is nothing worthy of worship but Allah.

Allah is free of all needs - he does not have the qualities of humans. For example, need for food and rest.

He is the most powerful and there is no one equal to him - in any aspect.

According to Hadith, Surah Ikhlas is equal to a third of the Quran.

INTERESTING FACTS

The Quran was revealed to prophet Muhammad (PBUH) over 1400 years ago. These words were put into the prophet's heart and he would tell the people. These messages were memorized and collected together in writing. The Quran is the word of Allah and is a guidance for mankind.

The Quran has never been changed.

WHO WAS ABDUL MUTALLIB?

Harith was the chief of Makkah. He was very popular and was credited for establishing the trade routes to Palestine Yemen and Syria. This allowed the caravans to make two trips in the year, one in the summer and one in the winter. Through this trade Makkah prospered as a city and attracted many people and wealth.

He married a lady by the name of Salma, from the tribe of Khazraj. She lived and remained in Yathrib. Yathrib was a popular stop off point for the caravans and she was frequently visited by Harith. Harith enjoyed his time with Salma and Allah blessed them with a son whom they named Shaybah. Shaybah continued to live in Yathrib with his mother.

Harith was still quite young when he passed away on one of his trade journeys and was buried in Gaza. Shaybah, the son of Salma and Harith, continued to live in Yathrib and Harith's brother, Mutallib, took over as the chief of Makkah.

Mutallib heard a lot about his nephew Shaybah. Mutallib decided that he would visit Shaybah in Yathrib and try and bring him back to Makkah with him. Although this seemed straight forward, Shaybah refused to leave Yathrib without permission from his mother.

Mutallib spoke at great lengths with Salma and explained to her the benefits of Shaybah moving to Makkah. He told her that Makkah offered many more opportunities for a bright youth than Yathrib had to offer. He told her that maybe in the fullness of time he may become the chief of Makkah, just like his father Harith.

Eventually she agreed and decided to send Shaybah, under the supervision of his uncle. Mutallib mounted his camel and put Shaybah on the saddle with him and headed to Makkah. On arrival in Makkah, the people saw this youngster on the back of the camel with Mutallib and assumed that he was the slave of Mutallib. They began to call Shaybah Abdul Mutallib, the slave of Mutallib.

They were amused when Mutallib explained to them that this was actually his nephew but the name Abdul Mutallib stuck with Shaybah.

Abdul Mutallib became the chief of Makkah and was loved and respected by all Makkah. He was probably best known to the future generations as the grandfather of Muhammad (PBUH).

THE ARMY OF ABRAHA

Abdul Mutallib was distressed. He knew that a massive army was nearby, ready to attack Makkah. The Makkans were few in number and could not put up a fight against this army of several thousand soldiers and elephants. Some of them had never seen an elephant before!

The Makkans had already left Makkah and fled to the surrounding mountains. This would be a good place to sit and view this 'battle'. They knew that any resistance against an army of such size was futile.

Abdul Mutallib went to the Kabbah, passing by the many idols that were scattered around the Kabbah. He went to the door of the Kabbah and prayed. He did not pray to the idols, they were made of stone and had no power. He prayed to Allah, asking Allah to protect his own house against Abraha's army.

Abraha had made this long journey from Yemen to Makkah. He planned to demolish the Kabbah, the House of Allah. He wanted the pagan Arabs to stop doing the pilgrimage to Makkah and divert it to Yemen. The Kabbah had been a place of pilgrimage for centuries, ever since Prophet Ibrahim and Ismail built it.

Abraha commanded his army to move forward. However, Mahmud, the lead elephant would not budge forward. They coaxed it and beat it with iron bars but it would not move towards Makkah. When ever they turned the elephant in any other direction, it would move happily, but not towards Makkah.

Allah then sent an army of birds with pebbles in their beaks and claws. They pelted the army. When these pebbles hit the army, the soldiers would start to die or fall apart. The army fled leaving everything behind. The army of birds continued their barrage until the whole army, including Abraha, died.

After the battle all that could be seen were dead people, broken up and lying scattered. Some had retreated and had died on the way back.

The people rejoiced and praised Allah for this victory. They began to pray to Allah again for a short while. This had been an example of Allah's might which took place before the birth of our prophet Muhammad (PBUH).

Allah is the our creator and sustainers, so always turn to him in prayer.

THE YEAR OF THE ELEPHANT

The army of Abraha of soldiers and elephants, were destroyed by Allah. They had travelled from Yemen to destroy the Kabbah. Allah sent an army of birds to destroy them. The birds threw stones from their beaks and claws which wiped out the entire army. This year is known as the year of the elephant.

Another significant thing about this year is that a special child was born. This child was our beloved Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). He was born in the year 571 CE in the month of Rabi-ul-awal.

Before the prophet was born, his father, Abdullah passed away. His father was sent on a trade journey where he became very ill and passed away near Yathrib. Yathrib later became known as Madina when the prophet (PBUH) went there.

When the prophet was born there was much joy in the household of Muhammad (PBUH). His mother Amina had already suffered the loss of Abdullah but was overjoyed at the birth of this beautiful baby. Straight away they took him to Abdul Mutallib who named him Muhammad - the praised one.

Muhammad was loved by everyone he came in contact with throughout his life. He spent his childhood tending sheep on the outskirts of Makkah. When he grew up he went on a trade journey for a widow by the name of Khadija. Later they both got married and lived happily for many years.

When Muhammad was 40 years old, the angel Jibrael came to him in the cave of mount Hira. The angel revealed to the prophet the first five verses of the Holy Quran. The Quran was revealed over a period of 23 years.

The verses were collect and are know as the Holy Quran which we have with us today. Not even a single word or letter has been changed since the Quran was revealed 1400 years ago.

A Muslim is a brother to another Muslim. We should look after each other and make sure everyone is well.

Allah made all humans equal - it does not matter what colour or how rich they are. We are all the same.

Allah created us from a single male and a female. Mankind is sometimes called 'the children of Adam'.

We should be grateful for the many blessings and pray that Allah rewards others with similar blessings.

Allah does not reward you for your beauty or wealth, only for your actions.

Allah has made us all into one Ummah. We are one Nation, it is our duty to look after and help each other.

5 RIGHTS

Abu Huraira narrates: the Prophet (PBUH) said that a Muslim has five rights over his Muslim brother:

1. To answer when he says salaam (we reply by saying Wa-alykum salaam);

2. To visit him when he is ill;

3. To be present at his funeral (Janazah prayer);

4. When he invites you, you should accept his invitation; and

5. To answer him when he says alhamdulillah, when he sneezes (we reply by saying 'yar humukallah')

SAHIH MUSLIM

We learn, from this Hadith, the status of our Muslim brothers and sisters. Whatever good they have, they share it with each other.

A good example is after Hijra. Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) created a brotherhood between the Makkans and Madina Muslims. They shared everything and looked after each other.

The hadith is saying that this brotherhood is an important part of Islam. In fact, caring for the needs of his brother is a sign of iman.

INTERESTING FACTS

We have thousands of ahadith which have been preserved and passed down. The sanad (chain of narration) is the part of the hadith that helps us judge how accurate a hadith is. It also helps us to rule out any false hadith, thus safeguarding our deen from falsehood.

The Sanad is the source from which the Hadith came.

THE HIJRA - PART 1

The Muslims had suffered much hardship at the hands of the Makkan idol worshippers. The Muslims were few in number of which many had been freed slaves and poor people. They had passed through some hard times including the boycott by the Kafirs. They were starved and were forced to eat the leaves off trees to survive.

Finally, Allah commanded the Prophet (peace be upon him) to leave Makkah with the Muslims and travel to a place called Yathrib. This city was renamed to Medina later. Yathrib was an oasis some distance from Makkah where some Muslims had accepted Islam. These Muslims had offered protection and support for the Muslims of Makkah.

The prophet (peace be upon him) was very sad at having to leave Makkah. Many of the Muslims had already done Hijra by the time the prophet (PBUH) was ready to leave. The Makkans were plotting at this time to murder the prophet (PBUH) but by the grace of Allah the prophet (PBUH) and his companion, Abu Bakr managed to escape.

Ali took the place of the prophet (peace be upon him) in the prophet's house. When the Makkans came to kill the prophet (PBUH) they found that the prophet (PBUH) had already left and Ali was sleeping in his bed. Ali was a very brave Sahabah.

The Makkans gave chase to try and capture and kill the prophet (PBUH). They even offered a reward for Muhammad (PBUH), dead or alive. However, the prophet (PBUH) did not take the normal route to Yathrib. Instead they took a little known route and had to take shelter in a cave in the mountains. The Makkans even came to the entrance of the cave in search for the prophet (PBUH).

At the cave, they found a spider web at the entrance. The Makkans decided that there was no-one in the cave.

THE HIJRA - PART2

The Makkans had no success in finding the prophet (PBUH). They had tried their very best. The prophet (PBUH) arrived in Yathrib, safe and sound, with his beloved companion, Abu Bakr. The people welcomed him and they rejoiced at receiving such a noble and kind person.

The prophet (PBUH) then created a brotherhood between the Ansars (helpers or people of Yathrib) and the Muhajireen (the people that had migrated to Yathrib). Many of the Muslims who migrated were poor and had to leave everything behind. Some had to leave their entire families behind.

The Ansars shared everything with the Muhajireen - this was true love and brotherhood. They became bonded together as brothers and sister. This sacrifice and sharing is an example to us to this day.

TRUE BROTHERHOOD IN ISLAM

Islam has taught mankind that we are all equal in the sight of Allah. It does not matter what colour your skin is; what tribe or country you belong to; how fat or tall you are or how much money you have in the bank! All human beings are made equal.

Allah says that we should compete in this world only in doing good deeds and good work not compete with each other in designer clothes, fast cars or in money and wealth. If we try to do good deeds and follow our deen, Allah will give us peace and success in this life and in the Hereafter.

We should never consider another person to be inferior to another. We should treat all Muslims as equal and indeed as brothers and sisters. We should care for our brothers and sisters and do dua that Allah may bless them and look after them in this life and in the Hereafter.

These verses point towards the magnificence of Allah's creation. For example, how Allah created the camel for long journeys through hot deserts.

Also the way the stars are supported in the heavens above without any visual support.

The lofty mountains that balance the Earth giving stability throughout.

By studying creation we see the magnificence of the Creator.

INTERESTING FACTS

The Quran was revealed a long time ago. Scientists look at the Quran and see the creators hand at work. There are no errors in the Quran and everything that can be checked by science is amazingly correct.

If this was written by a man, it would be full of errors. After carefully studying the Quran, we become sure that it is the true word of Allah.

THE CREATION OF ADAM

Allah created the heavens and the Earth. He also created Adam as the khalifah of Allah on Earth. The angels were astonished to see that Allah had created Man. They said that man will create havoc on Earth whilst the angels worshipped Allah night and day.

The thing about Adam was that Allah had given him free will. Adam could choose whatever he wanted to do. The angels, on the other hand, did not have this quality and they could only obey Allah's command.

Allah then asked the angels and Iblis to bow down before Adam. All the angels bowed down to Adam apart from Iblis, who was from the Jinn. The Jinn are another creation of Allah. He complained to Allah "How can I bow down to Adam when I am better than him!"

Iblis had pride inside his heart. He felt he was better than Adam because he was made from smokeless fire and Adam was made from clay. This is where the conflict between the Iblis and Mankind began.

Allah then banished Iblis from the company of the angels and became known as the shaytan, the rejected one. Adam and his mate Hawah (Eve) were then allowed to enter and enjoy the gardens of paradise. However, Allah had commanded them not to go near a certain tree in Jannat.

However, the Shaytan was very tricky and he deceived Adam and Hawah. He tricked them into eating from the tree, causing them to be thrown out of Jannat onto the Earth. Here Adam and Hawah spend forty years until Allah accepted their duas and forgave them.

The Shaytan has been the enemy of man ever since that happened. By the permission of Allah, the Shaytan is waiting to mislead all the children of Adam, from the straight path, so that they may end up in Hell.

So be warned and remember that you have to stick to the right path. The shaytan is waiting and trying very hard to take you away from the path to Jannat.

We only make dua to Allah. We should not make dua to anything or anyone else.

When we make dua, we thank Allah for everything he has given us.

We ask for what is good for ourselves, our families and all Mankind. May Allah make us better Muslims.

Allah listens to everyone's dua and answers them in this life or in the hereafter.

In our duas we remember all the Muslims who are suffering in the world.

If we do anything bad we must ask Allah to forgive us and never do it again. Allah is kind and forgiving.

DUAS

There are special times during the day when duas are more accepted. We should do more dua then.

1. Between the Adhan and the Salah.

2. After every Fard Salah

3. Before Fajar begins (last portion of the night)

4. Just before Magrib.

5. A special time during Friday. Scholars say that it's when the Imam sits between the Khutbas on Jumma.

Warning: Eating Haram things will cause our duas not to be accepted. Be very careful about the food we eat.

From the path I won't stray

When I have been bad,
I cry and become very sad.
In my heart a lesson I learn and to Allah again I turn.

From My heart I make a plea,
'O Allah please forgive me'
Then I promise to be good again and this goodness will remain.

MY DUA

Allah is our Creator, Master and Lord and he made the Paradise as a reward. For all those who have been good and just, upright and honest, those people of trust.

With our deeds piled in different amounts, we will meet Allah on the Day of Accounts.

Allah will judge us on that very day so forgiveness from our sins, we should pray.

May Allah forgives us for what we have said and accept all the Salahs that we have read.

May Allah overlook all our wrong deeds and keep us in Islam, which to heaven leads.

Allah listens to everyone's dua and forgives our mistakes. We should also be thankful for all the things Allah has given us

SURAH MU'MIN 40:60

Ask Allah and never feel shy. Allah wants us to make dua to him and He is the hearer of all things. Allah created everything and has power over everything. As only Allah can answer our duas, we do not make dua to anyone or anything else.

Allah answers all our prayers or provides goodness from them in this life or in the hereafter.

Ask Allah for forgiveness, with a clean heart, and Allah will forgive you - inshallah.

INTERESTING FACTS

Hadith, in the Arabic language, means news, report, speech or story. Hadith, in Islam, refers to the Prophet's sayings, his deeds, advice or actions that are approved by him.

All hadith were related through the sahabah. Hadith have good advice and lessons for all humanity. We should take benefit from them.

PEOPLE IN THE CAVE

Three men were on a journey and night came. They decided to take shelter in a cave. In the night, there was a sudden noise and rocks began to fall. A big rock blocked the entrance to the cave and the people could not get out.

The men tried everything they could think of but they just could not get out of the cave.

The first man made a dua and asked Allah to help him to get out of this problem. He said in his Dua that he had been a good person and asked Allah to accept his dua. Suddenly the rock moved a little.

The second person had also done some good deeds. He made a dua and asked Allah for help. The rocks again moved a little but not enough that they could get out.

Finally, the third man turned to Allah in this time of need. He asked Allah for help. Suddenly the last of the rocks moved out of the way and the three men were able to leave.

This is an example of the help of Allah. If we ask Allah with a pure heart then Allah's help does come. We must have faith in Allah and always turn to him in our times of distress and need.

The prophet (PBUH) used to turn to Allah when any hardship or calamity used to fall on the Muslims.

It is the duty of every Muslim to gain knowledge. No matter what your age or if you are a boy or girl.

The prophet (PBUH) stressed the importance of gaining knowledge. Some travelled many miles to learn a Hadith.

Knowledge gives you a better understanding of creation and takes you closer to Allah.

In Islam, seeking knowledge is an important form of worship.

We should learn about Islam and also practice it. Practice and learning go hand in hand.

Knowledge is light and ignorance is darkness. The more light we have, the less darkness there is.

Allah teaches us many times in the Quran and Hadith the importance of learning. In the above Hadith, Allah reminds us again the importance of learning. Studying is an important part of our deen.

So no matter your age, it is your duty to start studying. No more excuses!

Many people spend their whole lives studying and teaching Islam. They have a very high status in the eyes of Allah.

INTERESTING FACTS

After the Quran, the Hadith/Sunnah are the second source of knowledge in Islam. The Sunnah helps us understand some of the principles that are laid down in the Holy Quran.

The Sunnah provides a practical guide on how to follow these principles. The Prophet (PBUH) taught and practiced the Quran in all aspects of his life. The ahadith are about the Prophet's life and teachings.

A man travelled to Damascus. He met Abu Darda and said "I have come from the city of the prophet (Madina Manawarah) for only one reason, to confirm a Hadith"

He continued, " I was told that you have had heard some information directly from the Prophet (peace be upon him). I have come to hear this Hadith directly from you."

The reason that this man had made such a long and difficult journey was so that hearing this Hadith from Abu Darda would take him closer to the prophet (PBUH) in the chain of narration (Sanad).

Abu Darda said "I have heard the prophet (PBUH) say, whoever travels a path, seeking knowledge, Allah ta-ala will make the path towards Janaat easy for him..."

This person travelled many miles to confirm a single Hadith and make the link stronger. The blessings for studying are shown in the Hadith of Abu Darda, the students path to heaven will be made easier.

FASTING

Fasting is an act of worship given to Muslims. The prophet (PBUH) and his companions fasted regularly.

Fasting helps us to gain self control and helps us understand how poor people suffer.

When we fast, we don't eat or drink between sunrise and sunset. We can eat before Fajar and after Magrib.

When we fast we avoid all bad habits, and do as many good deeds as we can.

Fasting brings us closer to Allah and helps us see life properly.

There are 'fard' fasts, like in Ramadan, and optional fasts, throughout the year. We don't fast on Eid days.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

RAMADAN

Ramadan begins when the new moon appears. Muslims fast for the whole lunar month.

During Ramadan, it is fard for Muslims to fast. Some people do not need to fast (E.g. the old and very young).

'Tarawih' is a special prayer performed after Isha. We try and complete the whole Quran within Tarawih.

The lail-atul Qadr is a special night in Ramadan. The first verses of the Quran were revealed in this night.

We can spend the last ten days in the mosque, in seclusion. We dedicate these days to worship and study.

Ramadan is followed by Eid. On Eid, we pay sadaqat-ul-Fitr which goes to the poor to help them celebrate Eid.

and try our best to be kind and good.

This is the month of many blessings so we stop doing all bad things.
We study hard and learn Islam and keep away from everything haram.

FASTING

In Ramadan, every day we fast
From dawn until dusk, this does last
When everyone is asleep in the night
We wake up early before first light

We eat suhoor which is a small meal
And so much blessings we can feel
After doing Wudhu, its Fajr we pray and be good and kind the rest of the day

We break the fast at the end of the day
And again Magrib to Allah we pray
We pray the Tarawih and recite the Quran
we do all this in the month of Ramadan

When we fast in Ramadan, we do not drink nor eat, between dawn and dusk. However, there are other important parts of fasting:

We leave behind all our bad deeds and make an effort to do more good. We worship and pray more. We read more Quran.

Ramadan is the month of forgiveness and change. May Allah forgive our sins, and bring good change within our lives.

INTERESTING FACTS

The Holy Quran is the only book to have been kept both in spoken and written form. Every Muslim memorizes some of the Quran - we use it in Salah. A person who knows all of the Quran by heart is given the title of 'Hafiz'.

One of the miracles of the Quran is its ease to memorise. There are many thousands of hafiz in this country alone.

THE STORY OF THE QURAN

During the month of Ramadan we have a special night. This night is better than 1000 months which means to worship in this night would be better than to worship 1000 months. This night can be found in the last ten days of Ramadan and is called 'lailatul Qadr' - the night of power.

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) was forty years old. He used to go away for a few days to the mountains near Makkah and spend time alone. His wife, Khadija, prepared some food for him, for the few days he was away. This was a custom amongst some of the Makkans.

The Makkans themselves used to worship many idols and do many bad things. The prophet (PBUH) himself was known to them as a good person, in fact they used to call him al-Amin, which means the truthful.

One day the Prophet (PBUH) was away in the mountains in a cave in mount Hira. The angel Jibrael appeared to him in the form of a man and commanded him "Iqra". The prophet (PBUH) was shocked to see this person before his eyes and replied to the angel "I can not read."

The angel squeezed the prophet (PBUH) and again commanded "Iqra" which means read, repeat or recite. The prophet (PBUH) in the state of confusion and worry again replied, "I can not read".

The angel squeezed him a second time and commanded the prophet (PBUH) "Iqra". Again the prophet (PBUH) gave the same reply. The angel squeezed the prophet (PBUH) for a third time and this time recited five verses, which were the first verses of the Holy Quran.

The prophet (PBUH) repeated behind the angel and they were inscribed on the prophet's heart. These are the first words from Allah to Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him).

THE STORY OF THE QURAN

The Prophet (PBUH) was terrified and he ran home and told his wife. After that they went to Waraqah, a learned man, who confirmed that this was an angel that had brought a divine message to Muhammad (PBUH).

This was on this night in Ramadan that the Prophet (PBUH) got revelation. It was also the first time he had seen the angel Jibrael. The Prophet (PBUH) continued to get verses from Allah over the next 23 years. These verses are the Quran which we have with us today.

Many Muslims consider lail-a-tul Qadr as the 27th night in Ramadan. It is a blessed night, may Allah allow us to take benefit from this great month and to worship during this blessed night (ameen).

Draw the things you like doing during Ramadan.

GOOD & BAD

Allah gave humans a free-will to decide which path they take. Good and bad is a test from Allah.

When we do a bad deed, a black dot is formed on the heart. Many bad deeds lead to a blackened heart.

Each Good deed is multiplied by ten and each bad deed is recorded as one sin.

Allah is the most merciful, when we turn to Allah he will forgive our sins no matter how bad they are.

A good deed can be as simple as a smile to another or removing broken glass from the footpath.

When we die we leave everything behind but the deeds we earned. All Muslims should try and be good.

We must always be just and fair. We should not harm anyone or deny anyone their rights.

We must be careful in everything we do. We must take our time and do things properly. We should pray

INTERESTING FACTS

The best generation of Muslims were the Sahabah. They learned directly from the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). Allah blessed them with great devotion to the prophet (PBUH) and to the Deen of Allah. Through their sacrifices and struggle, Islam was spread throughout the world.

May Allah bless the companions and help us to learn and follow their example.

UMAR IBN KHATTAB BECOMES A MUSLIM

Umar was very angry. He could see that the Muslims were slowly increasing in number. The Makkans believed in many gods where as the Muslims were saying that there is only one god. The Muslim teaching was totally against his own beliefs.

He finally decided that he had enough and was going to put an end to Islam. He decided to kill Muhammad (PBUH), which would also see the end of Islam.

Umar was a great warrior and many feared this great man. When people saw Umar walking with his sword in his hand, they knew that someone was in for some trouble. Everyone kept out of the way.

Umar set off and on the way he met one of his friends who asked him where he was going. Umar said " I am going to kill Muhammad and put an end to Islam." The man, who had accepted Islam, said "Why don't you check your own house first. Your sister and brother in law have both accepted Islam."

Umar was furious and rushed to his sisters house. When he got there he heard someone reciting some beautiful words. Umar barged in and asked "What was I hearing?". His sister was surprised but had managed to hide the verses of the Quran they were reading. She replied, "Nothing!"

Umar became angrier and began to beat up both his brother in law and his sister. When he cooled down and saw the blood on his sisters face, he felt ashamed. He repeated "What were you reading? Let me see." His sister replied, "It was some verses from the Quran but you cant touch it because you are not clean."

Umar had a bath and started to read these verses. As he was reading them he was touched by the beauty and wisdom of the Quran. After reflecting on these pearls of wisdom, he knew no man could write such words. In his heart he knew that this was the truth and that Muhammad (PBUH) was the true messenger of Allah.

UMAR IBN KHATTAB BECOMES A MUSLIM

He went to the prophet (PBUH) and accepted Islam by saying the Shahadah. There was great celebration amongst the Muslims.

Umar became a great leader and scholar of Islam. His life is an inspiration to many. The way he turned to the right path from the wrong is an example to us all.

THE QURAN

The prophet was sent to Mankind with a pure message, the Holy Quran. This message that was sent to the prophet from Allah, through the angel Jibrael. The Quran was revealed to the prophet over a period of 23 years. There are over 6500 verses in the Quran. The prophet could not read or write and the words that came to him were not his own words but the words of Allah.

The Quran also has 114 chapters and is the only book in the world that is memorised by people. In fact, every Muslims must memorise the Quran. Some Muslims only memorise a few surahs and some Muslims memorise the whole Quran.

A person who knows the whole Quran, from start to finish is known as a Hafiz. There are many hundreds of thousands of Hafiz in our Ummah. From the time of the prophet until today, not a single word has been added or removed from the Quran.

We should all try our best to learn and study the Quran throughout our lives. Some people believe that if you read the Quran from the teacher once then that is enough. The truth is that we should continue to read the Quran our whole lives; we should try and memorise as much of the Quran as possible; and we should learn the meaning of the Holy Quran.

The Quran is a guidance from Allah to Mankind. It is like a map or a manual for us so that we can get the correct directions in our lives. With this guidance we should begin to change our lives according to the way Allah wants us to live our lives.

This is the right of the Quran. We must respect and look after our Quran. We must learn to read the Quran with correct Tajweed and also learn the message and meaning of the Quran.

May Allah help us throughout our lives to be good Muslims and to dedicate our lives to his worship and to his deen. May Allah give us a good understanding of the Quran. May Allah help us learn the Quran and practice what we learn.

HALAL

Allah made halal things which are good for us. Good Muslims only eat halal foods and do halal things.

Haram foods are bad for us and we should keep away from all bad things.

Allah has made many Halal foods. We should try our best to eat only Halal. If we are not sure we should ask.

We must earn money from Halal businesses. We mustn't work in places that deal in haram (eg casino/pub)

We should not rob people or steal from others. This money we get would also be haram.

Any money we get from Haram earnings would make the things purchased from them Haram (eg clothes and food)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

EATING

We should wash our hands before we eat. We should also read Bismillah before we eat.

We should not be greedy when we eat. The prophet ate in moderation (not too much or too little).

When we eat, we should sit down and also share our food. Do not waste food.

We should eat with our right hand because our left hand is used for unhygienic things (eg lifting slippers).

Food is a great blessing from Allah. Do not waste any food. Think about the people that are hungry and poor.

When we finish we should thank Allah for the food he has given us.

Allah has also place health in the Halal food.

Allah is also telling us that if we truly believe in Allah and worship only him then we would be grateful to Allah for this blessing of good food.

INTERESTING FACTS

The Hadith of the prophet were collected together by some great scholars and teachers. They collected the Hadith and compiled them in their books. They use to teach the people and also acted on them.

Two of the greatest and most famous scholars were Imam Muslim and Imam Bukhari. They were prolific scholars who had been blessed by Allah with wisdom and knowledge.

UMAR BIN ABDUL AZIZ

Umar was crying. His beard was soaked with the tears as he walked home to his wife. He had received some news which had saddened him greatly. Many others would have been celebrating, not Umar. Others would have fought for it, not Umar. Umar had been appointed the leader of the Muslims, the Amir al mumineen, after the death of the last leader Suliman.

Umar knew that this task was a great burden upon him. He was responsible for the welfare of the Muslims and non-Muslims who lived under his care. He thought about the hungry and the poor, the orphans and the oppressed. They were now his responsibly and he would answer to Allah for their welfare. He imagined the Day of Judgement, when he would be standing before Allah with all deeds. There would be a queue of people waiting to lay claim to his rewards because their needs were not met.

Umar became a pious and just leader. Justice and happiness filled the Earth and the people were please with such a good person. They thanked Allah for making Umar their leader.

From the start of his rule, he only dealt with people kindly and in accordance with the Quran and the Sunnah. All the people loved and respected him for that. He would not waste even a diram, instead tried to account for everything. He would not give unjustly to his family and tribe. He lived a very simple life. He was even handed and just to the people under his care.

Whenever Umar would often work late into the night. Whenever he finished, he would then switch the lamp off because the lamp and oil belonged to the government. He would light his own lamp, whose oil was paid for from his own wages.

He did not want to abuse any of the money that was entrusted to him. He knew Allah would question him about everything he did in his life. This is an example of how thorough he was with regards to lawful and the unlawful, the halal and the haram.

FOREWORD

Bismillahir Rahmanir Raheem

It gives me great pleasure to write a few words regarding the latest addition of the Islamic Activity Book.

Allah says in the Quraan "We sent every messenger with the language of his people so that he may explain to them (in clear manner)"

Therefore, the language of explanation should be one which is clear and easy to understand.

The Islamic books that are intended for children and available in bookshops, are either too heavy for children's age or they are unable to fulfill the need of today's children.

Islamic Activity Book is interesting, informative, character building and a very helpful tool in nurturing our young ones to be better Muslims.

It is my humble and sincere dua that Allah accept the hard work put into its preparation by the authors, make the book a source of guidance for our offspring, reward the writers and grant them the ability to expand their work and present the much needed interesting presentation to oncoming generations. THE 5 PILLARS

Islam is based on five pillars. This means in Islam there are five very important things which every Muslim must follow.

1. Shahadah - To believe in your heart and say with your tongue There is no god but Allah and Muhammad (pbuh) is His messenger.

2. Salah - To pray five times every day. The five daily prayers are Fajr, Zohr, Asr, Maghrib and Isha.

3. Zakah - To purify our wealth by giving a small amount to the poor. This is given from our extra wealth.

4. Sawm - To not eat and drink from before Fajr until after Maghrib. This is known as fasting. We fast during the month of Ramadhan.

5. Hajj - To make pilgrimage to Makkah. We must perform the Hajj at least once in our lifetime, if we are able to.

AL HADITH

"Whoever dies from my Ummah without assigning any partners with Allah will enter paradise"

Sahih Bukhari

In Islam, the most basic and the most important belief is Tawheed. This is the belief in Allah who is our only true Creator, Master and Sustainer of the universe. He is the Lord towards whom we direct all our worship.

We must truly believe this in our hearts for us to be Muslims. It is easy to say this with our lips but its only when we believe this in our heart and act upon this that we will be successful.

In the Hereafter, Allah will reward those who believe in and live by this fact, with Paradise.

What is a Hadith?

Hadith means news or information. In Islam, Hadith refers to sayings and doings of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh); actions done with his approval and information which is related to him (e.g. his description).

BE A'MAZED

Its time for Fajr Salah. Help Penpal get to the Masjid as quickly as possible.

Salah is an important part of Islam. Muslims must perform Salah five times a day. The five prayers are Fajr, Zohr, Asr, Maghrib and Isha.

According to Hadith, a person who performs Salah with Jamaat (congregation) will get 27 times more reward than performing it on his own.

STORY TIME

GREAT SADNESS AND JOY

Abdul Muttalib had been very sad at the death of his son, Abdullah. He had loved Abdullah more than any of his other sons. Abdullah had recently passed away whilst returning from a trade journey. This was near Yathrib (later known as Madina) and he was buried there.

What saddened Abdul Muttalib more was that Abdullah had passed away so shortly after his marriage to the lady Amina. It was a great match and everyone in Makkah had been overjoyed with this wonderful union.

Amina was very sad by the sudden death of her husband. She didn't want Abdullah to go on this trade journey in the first place. Instead, she wanted to spend some time with her new husband whom she loved dearly.

From all this sadness there suddenly came the sounds of celebration coming from Amina's house. People rushed to find Abdul Muttalib to give him the good news but he could not be seen anywhere. They knew the best place to find him would be at the Ka'bah so they rushed there.

When they finally met Abdul Muttalib they gave him the good news of the birth of his grandson. Abdul Muttalib was overjoyed at this wonderful news and thanked Allah for this blessing and happiness.

Little did Abdul Muttalib know that this child would become the greatest person to walk on the face of this Earth. This child grew up to become our Prophet Muhammad (pbuh), the last and final messenger of Allah.

ISLAM

PEACE

THE EARLY DAYS

Abu Hurairah (r) was from the tribe of Daws. After he accepted Islam he went and met Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). After a short while he moved to Madina to be close to Muhammad (pbuh) and learn from this great teacher of piety.

Abu Hurairah (r) was a very pious Muslim but the one thing that troubled him most was that his mother would not accept Islam. He would pray for her so much and hoped that she would become a Muslim as well.

One day he was telling his beloved mother about Allah and His messenger when his mother uttered some words. This made Abu Hurairah (r) feel very sad.

Abu Hurairah (r) went to see our Prophet (pbuh) with tears still flowing from his eyes. When the Prophet (pbuh) asked him why he was so upset, Abu Hurairah (r) related the whole story. Abu Hurairah (r) then asked our Prophet (pbuh) to make dua for her.

Abu Hurairah (r) was very pleased when prophet Muhammad (pbuh) made dua for his mother. He was sure that his mother would accept Islam one day soon.

When Abu Hurairah (r) got home, he heard the splashing of water and then his mother told him to come into the house. When Abu Hurairah (r) entered, his mum said, "La-ilaha illallah Muhammadur Rasoolullah" which means she had accepted Islam.

The tears began to flow from Abu Hurairah's (r) eyes but this time they were tears of joy!

HADITH SOURCES

The Sahabah were the companions of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). They passed down information about the Prophet (pbuh) and about his life to the next generation. They also passed down any advice and teachings the Prophet (pbuh) had given them.

These sayings were then collected by later scholars and put into books. There are many great Hadith collections and great Muhadith (Hadith scholars) that came in the later generations.

ISLAM

Islam is the deen of the Muslims. Islam is an Arabic word which is taken from the words peace and submission.

We submit to Allah by choosing to follow His guidance in everything we do. This means we must not do anything against Allah's wishes.

When we follow Islam properly, there is peace: peace in our lives; peace in the community and peace in the world.

Islam is not an ordinary religion but is a way of life. Islam is the way of life for all the Muslims in the world.

A true Muslim is a person who follows the command of Allah in every part of his or her life.

Islam is not a new religion. All the people who followed the true teachings of their prophets were Muslims.

TOUCHED BY THE TRUTH

Mus'ab Ibn Umair and Asad Ibn Zurarah were sitting under the shade of a wall, resting from the hot desert sun. Earlier that morning they had been talking to some of the people of Yathrib about Islam. As they sat and rested, they chatted with each other.

Suddenly, Usaid Ibn Hudair came towards them. He was angry. In fact he was very angry. He had his spear with him and was looking to sort someone out. He saw the two companions talking to each other and recognised them. He began to march towards them, shaking his spear menacingly as he strode.

Now Usaid wasn't a violent fellow but was a strong and courageous man. He was very well respected in Yathrib and was considered an intelligent and wise person. He was the chief of his tribe but had spent his life worshipping idols.

When he reached the two friends, he spoke to them angrily. He said that he wasn't happy that these two Muslims were speaking to the people of Yathrib. He knew that many people had accepted Islam but he felt that idol worship was still the correct religion!

Mus'ab knew that Usaid was very angry and might not listen to them. Mus'ab spoke to him in a soft and gentle voice. "Brother," he said, "Why don't you sit with us for a few moments and listen to what we have to say?" Mus'ab continued, "If you don't like what we say then do as you wish."

This was a reasonable idea and Usaid accepted it. He stuck his spear into the sand and sat down to listen to what they had to say.

CONTINUED....

Mus'ab explained to him about Islam and how it was the correct way of life for human beings. He told him that Islam encouraged people to be good and to leave all bad and evil things. He spoke to him about Allah and about the day of Judgement. He talked for a short time and then recited some verses of the Qur'an.

The expression on Usaid's face changed as the words melted his heart. His anger went away and tears of joy rolled down his cheeks. He had seen the truth and knew that these wonderful words of wisdom could only be from Allah. They moved him so much that he hugged Mus'ab and accepted Islam on the spot.

Usaid had experienced the truth and became a pious and respected Muslim. He was kind and considerate and would help the poor and needy. The people of Yathrib loved him even more and respected this just and honourable man. The words of wisdom and truth had changed him just as it has changed billions of lives throughout the world.

SHAHADAH

When people become Muslims they say the Shahadah with their mouths. They also believe it in their hearts.

Shahadah means to bear witness to something. In Islam, it means to bear witness to the oneness of Allah and that Muhammad (pbuh) is His messenger

The first part is to bear witness that there is only one God - Allah - Who alone we worship.

The second part is to bear witness that Muhammad (pbuh) is the last and final messenger of Allah.

A person who believes the Shahadah in his or her heart is indeed a Muslim. All Muslims believe the Shadahah.

All prophets taught that Allah is one, without a partner or a son. They told us to worship only Allah and nothing else besides Allah.

Islam teaches us many important lessons. It teaches us to always be good. Write down some of the things Islam teaches us.

1. Write down the five pillars of Islam

2. Five good things we should do everyday

3. Five people we should respect

SHAHADAH

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

I bear witness that there is no god besides Allah

وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ and I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and messenger.

We believe that Allah is One who has no equal, partner nor son.
Its Allah we worship, to him we pray,
the Lord and Master of the final day.

In Muhammad we also believe,
prophethood and Wahi he did receive.
He was the last and final guide, whose message will forever reside.

So leave falsehood and evil aside and let Islam in our hearts abide.
Success and happiness will thrive
when Iman in our heart is alive.

AL QUR'AN

...This day I have perfected your religion for you, completed my favours upon you, and have chosen Islam as your religion...

Surah Al Ma'idah(5): verse 3

The Qur'an was revealed over a period of 23 years. The verses of the Qur'an came down piecemeal (a little at a time) until the Qur'an was completed.

We learn that Allah chose the name Islam as our way of life. We learn that Islam is the perfect way of life. We also learn that Islam is based purely on the guidance of Allah - it is not man made.

Nothing new can be added to Islam because Allah had already perfected and completed it.

INTERESTING FACTS!

Islam is the fastest growing religion in the world. More people are accepting Islam than any other religion. It is the fastest growing religion in Europe and America.

The truth of Islam is clearly seen in the Holy Qur'an which has helped improve the lives of billions of humans. Even today, people turn to the Qur'an for guidance and are moved by the words of Allah.

JUSTICE

JUSTICE

When a nation is ruled with justice, the effects are felt all around. The effects are even felt by animals.

One moment in the life of a just ruler is better than sixty years of worship.

In Muslim history, even high profile rulers were brought to court to answer charges made by common people.

On the day of Judgement, Allah will mete out justice to the oppressed - oppressors will be brought to justice.

On the day of Judgement, those people who were just in ruling will be shaded under the throne of Allah.

The people who were just will be seated on pulpits made of light, in the presence of Allah.

GOODNESS

Assalamu—alaykum

How do we become good? Here is a clue.
Whenever we say anything, it must be true.
When we play outside, we must not fight.
When we talk to others, we say what is right.

We must try to be friendly and never rude and also be happy and in a good mood.
We must be trustworthy so we don't steal and the suffering of others we must feel.

We must help both our Mum and Dad and never hurt others or make them sad.
We must listen to what the teachers say;
to the path of goodness, this is the way.

AL HADITH

Abu Dawud

This Hadith advises that we must be truthful in all matters. Even if we will get into trouble or hardship because of this, we must still speak the truth.

Life is a struggle to improve ourselves and our deen. In this case, it is the best struggle because you are speaking the truth amidst the falsehood. Sometimes it might be easier to tell a small lie but it is more righteous to tell the truth.

Telling the truth has great reward from Allah. You will get more blessing and reward when you tell the truth in a difficult situation.

Do we need hadith?

The Prophet (pbuh) lived his life according to Islam.

The Ahadith give us guidance in many aspects of our personal and social life as well as a deeper understanding of the Qur'an. They are a valuable learning tool.

Whenever we say, hear or read the name of our beloved Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) we should say 'sallallahu alayhi wa sallam' This is like a dua we make which is carried to Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) by the angels.

BE A'MAZED

Penpal just heard the Adhan for Salah. Get him to the masjid as quick as possible before Jamaat.

The Adhan is the call to prayer. It is used to let the people know that the time for prayer has started. The Mu'azin reads the Adhan out in a loud voice so that people can hear it and hurry to the Masjid.

Just before the main congregational prayer (jamaat), the Mu'azin recites the Iqamat.

This Dua means:

"In the name of Allah, in its beginning and its end."

Sometimes we forget to say the dua at the start of the meal. If we forget the first dua, we say this special dua when we remember during the meal.

This prevents the Shaytan from sharing in the meal.

THE EARLY DAYS

Abu Hurairah (r) would spend all his time in the company of our Prophet (pbuh) learning about Islam. Abu Hurairah (r) would even accompany our Prophet (pbuh) on all his journeys and different expeditions.

Many people would come to Abu Hurairah (r) and ask him questions about our Prophet (pbuh). Abu Hurairah (r) was blessed with such an amazing memory that he would be able to teach the people so much about Islam.

Many years later, at the time of Marwan Ibn al-Hakam, Abu Hurairah (r) was called to the court of Marwan. Marwan wanted to test Abu Hurairah (r) and see how good his memory really was. Marwan setup a test during which scribes would secretly write down every hadith Abu Hurairah (r) related.

As Abu Hurairah (r) taught, the scribes were busily recording all this valuable knowledge onto their scrolls.

A year later, Abu Hurairah (r) was invited back to meet Marwan. He was asked to relate ahadith as before. Abu Hurairah (r) related the same ahadith, exactly as he had done a year earlier.

Later Marwan and the scribes were comparing these hadith and the ahadith that Abu Hurairah (r) had related a year earlier. They were astonished to find that both sets of ahadith were identical, word for word.

Marwan was very impressed with the memory of Abu Hurairah who was such a honoured teacher and transmitter of hadith.

HADITH PARTS

There are three different parts to a Hadith:

1. The Sanad is the chain of narration - from whom to whom the information was passed until it came to the collector.
2. The Matn is the actual text of the Hadith.
3. The collector is the scholar who recorded the Hadith.

These three parts of the Hadith are scrutinised by the scholars before writing them down in their books.

Money and wealth are a gift from Allah. Allah will ask us how we spent this gift whilst we were living on Earth. If we spent it on charity and helping people then we will get immense reward for it. Wealth never decreases by giving to charity or in helping the needy. In the same way, we should not waste this wealth or be too extravagant with it.

Islam teaches us good manners. The Prophet (pbuh) said, "The best of you are those who have the best manners."

The Prophet (pbuh) is our role model so we should try to be like him. We should take his advice on all matters.

We must always be honest and tell the truth. We should never lie or deceive anyone. We must be trustworthy.

We must be kind and helpful to all. We mustn't look down on others nor think we are superior to them.

We must show respect to our parents by being helpful and kind to them. We should listen to them and obey them.

... and let not the hatred of others to you make you swerve to wrong and depart from justice. Be just: that is closer to piety...

Al Qur'an 5:8

This Qur'an Ayat tells us to always be just. If we are just then this will bring us closer to Allah and will help us be good Muslims.

When we deal with people we should be fair to them. It might be that they are enemies or have been bad to us in the past. We should not let this influence our dealings with them.

If we are in a position of power, we should not abuse this by showing favour to one person over another even if they are a friend or relative.

INTERESTING FACTS!

In the books of seerah, we find that the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) was a very fair and just person. It was through these qualities that people saw the good character and conduct of Muhammad (pbuh) and accepted Islam. At the conquest of Makkah, people saw the mercy and kindness of Muhammad (pbuh) and thousands of people accepted Islam.

We too should study seerah and learn a valuable lesson from this great man.

① STORY TIME

MUHAMMAD IBN QASIM

Back in the history of Islam, the Muslim empire was enormous. Hundreds of thousands of people had accepted Islam causing the Muslim world to spread from Arabia into many different countries. Within a short space, the Islamic world had spread into Africa and Asia so there were Muslims of many different backgrounds, colours and languages.

However, there were many problems on one of its borders. The people and tribes that were against Islam had moved to the countries near the edge of the Muslim empire and would attack and rob the people living there. They became a nuisance and would cause a lot of bloodshed.

The Muslim rulers of the lands were very worried for the welfare of these people who were both Muslims and non-Muslims. They had lived in harmony in the past and enjoyed the benefit of living in this peaceful land. All the peace had gone and the people were now terrified.

The ruler decided to send a big army to guard this border and sort these rebels and bandits out. Before long, a Muslim army was sent there and peace was restored to this whole area. However, all these different groups continued to attack the army and eventually defeated it. Before very long, the state of the country had returned to chaos with small armies coming into the Muslim lands and attacking its people.

The king sent a second army, which resulted in the same conclusion. Finally, the ruler decided to send his nephew, Muhammad Ibn Qasim, to this land with another army to patrol the area and to restore peace, harmony and prosperity.

Now Muhammad was just a youngster of seventeen but he loved to study from his teachers in the Islamic colleges and universities. He had a great love for Islam and would try to live his life according to Islam.

When Muhammad Ibn Qasim got to the lands he managed to restore peace very quickly. He then continued looking after the people in those lands.

The army he commanded also loved and respected this youngster. They loved the way he dealt with the people and the concern he had for their welfare. They liked the way he resolved all issues according to Islam. They loved the fact that he was dedicated to Islam and was an intelligent and fair man.

Before long, many people began to move to the Muslim lands. All the lands near by also became part of the Muslim world. People accepted Islam in their droves and before very long Islam spread throughout all the neighbouring countries.

These people that accepted Islam long ago were from the lands known today as Uzbekistan, Bangladesh, Pakistan, India and Kashmir. It was through this youngster and his love for justice and fairness that there are Muslims in these countries today.

HAJJ

Hajj is the fifth pillar of Islam. Muslims must make the pilgrimage to Makkah at least once in their lifetime.

Although people can visit Makkah anytime, we can only perform the Hajj in the Month of Zul Hijjah.

During Umrah and Hajj, we walk around the Ka'bah seven times then we drink some zam zam.

We then walk between the hills of Safah and Marwah (Sa'i), 7 times. We then cut our hair or shave our head

During Hajj (8th til 13th Zul Hijjah), we spend time in Mina, Arafah and Muzdalifa. We do the Rami of Jamarat.

During these days, Hajjis wear the Ihram- two pieces of white unstitched cloth. Women just wear simple clothes.

AL QUR'AN

And proclaim amongst the people (about observing) Hajj (pilgrimage), they shall come to you on foot and on every lean camel, they shall come from every deep and distant (mountain highway)..
Holy Qur'an 22:27

The command came to Prophet Ibrahim (as) to tell the people to perform the Hajj to this noble house (i.e. the Ka'bah). So the Hajj was started by Ibrahim (as) which was many hundreds of years before Prophet Muhammad's (pbuh) time.

The people come from all corners of the world to perform the Hajj. Every town and city in the world seems to be sending Hajjis every year to Makkah. Millions of Hajjis make pilgrimage every year. People come to Hajj on different types of transport such as ships, planes, buses and by walking.

INTERESTING FACTS!

Muhammad (pbuh) is the last and final messenger of Allah. Muhammad (pbuh) brought the Qur'an to us and taught us how to live our lives according to the will of Allah.

However, we also believe and respect the thousands of prophets that came before Muhammad (pbuh). We still love and respect Prophet Ibrahim (as) and follow the command Allah had given him to call people to Hajj.

BE A'MAZED

Penpal went to Hajj and got lost. Help him get back to Mina.

Mina is often called 'tent city' because when the Hajjis go there, they stay in tents. There are millions of Hajjis so you can imagine how many tents there would be. They arrive in Mina on the first day of Hajj from Makkah and spend the day there. They spend a total of three days in Mina. It is easy to get lost in Mina because it is so big and the tents look similar.

K STORY TIME

IBRAHIM (AS) & THE KA'BAH

Ibrahim (as) was a great prophet. Once he came to visit his son, Ismael (as), in Makkah. He had not met Ismael (as) for a while and was longing to see him. Ismael (as) had grown up and started his own small family. Ismael (as) was returning home from hunting when Ibrahim (as) met him. Ibrahim (as) and Ismael (as) both embraced each other and were so overjoyed.

The command was given to Ibrahim (as) to build a house, dedicated to the worship of Allah. Together Ibrahim (as) and Ismael (as) started building this Masjid, known as the Ka'bah. They built it near the spring of Zamzam, close to the hillocks of Safah and Marwah.

As they were building the Ka'bah, they were unable to reach the higher parts of the wall. The stone Ibrahim (as) was standing on would rise up and down, allowing the wall to be built. To finish the walls, they needed a corner stone but could not find a suitable one. Jibrael brought them a pure white stone from Jannah to complete the building.

Ibrahim (as) and Ismael (as) completed the building and fixed the corner stone. Ibrahim (as), by the command of Allah, invited the whole of Mankind to make the pilgrimage to this holy place.

For many years Makkah remained a city of peace and goodness. Later, evil crept into the community and soon the people began to put idols in and around the Ka'bah.

Ibrahim (as) had dedicated this building to Allah, the one and only true God of mankind. Mankind had polluted this pure truth by putting false gods in this holiest of places.

It was only when Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) came did he restore it back to its original state. People have been making the pilgrimage to Makkah from the time of Ibrahim (as) until today. Billions of people have visited this holiest of places.

The Ka'bah was built by prophet Ibrahim (as) so that people would come here and worship Allah. However as time went on people began to pollute this holy place by putting idols in and near the Ka'bah.

Allah also made us and put inside us our hearts - a place where only Iman would stay. Iman is the true belief in Allah and only Allah without assigning partners to Him. In other words, the heart is a place of tawheed just like the Ka'bah was built as a place of tawheed.

Over time, the Ka'bah became polluted when idols were placed at the Ka'bah by the people. We have to be careful that this does not happen to us inside our hearts.

For example, if we start doing things which Allah has told us not to do then we have polluted the pure Tawheed inside our hearts. We chose to obey someone or something else instead of obeying Allah's command!

So next time someone tells you to do something bad which goes against Islam you need to tell them, "No! I'm a Muslim and I must do what Allah says."

THE EARLY DAYS

When Abu Hurairah (r) moved to Madina, he experienced extreme poverty and would often be hungry. The Muslims of Madina were very poor in those days. However, he pursued his wishes to learn from the greatest teacher Muhammad (pbuh) and he dedicated all his time to this.

Sometimes he would suffer from such extreme hunger that he would tie a stone to his stomach to reduce the pangs of hunger. In one incident, he was so hungry that he waited for one of the Sahabah to invite him home for something to eat.

The Sahabah passed him by but when Muhammad (pbuh) passed by, he (pbuh) realised the situation of Abu Hurairah (r) and invited him home.

At the Prophet's house there was only a bowl of milk to drink. The Prophet (pbuh) invited all the people of 'Ahl as-Suffah' to his house. Such was the blessing that they all drank from this milk.

Abu Hurairah (r) lived in a poor state for a long time. After our Prophet (pbuh) passed away, Abu Hurairah (r) was appointed governor of Bahrain and he also got married and had a daughter.

During this time, he became very wealthy from gifts given by people and also from breeding horses. However, he remained a simple person and refused to let this wealth change him.

He would spend much time in the worship of Allah. In fact, he would worship Allah one third of the night, his wife worshipped the second third and his daughter worshipped the final third. In his house, the worship of Allah would remain all night long.

HADITH SOURCES

The 'Sihah Sittah' are the six most authentic Hadith collections. They are listed below and are used widely by the Muslim Ummah.

Bukhari and Muslim are the top two Ahadith collections. They were extensively researched and also have the toughest criteria for Sahih Hadith.

Other Hadith collections are also referred to and used by the scholars.

The oldest collection is the Muwatta of Imam Malik.

KA'BAH FACTS

Whenever Muslims pray, they face the direction of the Ka'bah. The Ka'bah is in Makkah in Saudi Arabia.

The Ka'bah was the first house for the worship of Allah. Millions of people come to Makkah annually.

The Ka'bah forms the shape of a cube. It has no windows. The door is about two meters from the ground.

The Ka'bah has a Hateem (looks like a small semi-circular wall) near it. It was originally part of the Ka'bah.

People go around the Ka'bah seven times. They recite duas as they walk around. They also kiss the Hajar-e-Aswad.

The Hajar-e-Aswad is a stone which came from heaven. It was white but the sins of mankind have made it black.

THE HAJJ

From Allah most high, the command came.
To build the Ka'bah, in Allah's name.
Ibrahim started and foundations were laid,
stones were collected and the walls made.

He wanted the walls to be quite high,
so the stone he stood on began to fly.
He built the Ka'bah tall and strong and work was finished before very long.

He was then told to call people here and from all over the world they did appear.
They came in their Millions - from every place, from different countries and of every race.

People come from all over the world to perform Hajj. Many people change their lives before returning home. In Hajj, they pray a lot and make lots of dua.

Good changes that are made in some people.

Things and places

AL HADITH

The messenger of Allah (pbuh) said:

Whoever did Hajj... will return as the day his mother gave birth to him (sinless).

Bukhari, Muslim

The Hajj is a very important act of worship. If we do the Hajj without breaking any of the guidelines, Allah will forgive all our sins. We will be sinless just as a baby when it is born.

Any good action has the effect of removing or cancelling our sins. However, we must have a correct intention and do it according to the teachings of Islam.

Whenever we do any good deed we should think about the reason we are doing it. Are we doing it for Allah or for some other reason? We learn about right and wrong by studying Islam.

Are Hadith important?

The Hadith are the second most important source of information after the Qur'an. They help us understand the will and command of Allah better. The Ahadith contain the sunnah of the Prophet (pbuh).

A big LESSON

“Allah is angry with a person who never asks Him for anything.”

Tirmidhi

Things to Ask Allah for

Allah provides for all his creations including the fish in the sea, the animals on land and the birds in the sky. Allah wants us to turn to him in dua and ask for whatever we want and need. We should ask for good thing for us, our families and the people in the world.

ARAFAH

The day of Arafah is the most important day of Hajj. The Prophet (pbuh) said that Hajj is Arafah.

People stand from noon until sunset in the plains and on the slopes of mount Arafah. They make dua to Allah.

Many people weep and ask Allah for forgiveness and other such favours. Allah listens to all duas.

Its like a scene from the last day where all humans will stand before Allah, awaiting their fate.

The day of Arafah is on the 9th day of Zul Hijjah, the last month of the Islamic year.

After the day of Arafah, the rest of the Muslim world have a special day called Eid-ul-Adha.

THE GREAT SACRIFICE

Ibrahim (as) was a prophet of Allah. Even today he is respected by all revealed religions of the world. There are many great stories in his life and many lessons to learn from this great man. There is one story in particular which has great significance today.

Ibrahim (as) had a dream in which he was commanded to sacrifice his son to Allah. Ibrahim (as) was very worried because he loved his son so much. This dream appeared to him a few times and he knew that this dream was true. Ibrahim (as) was a prophet and a prophet's dream is equal to revelation.

He spoke to his son Ismael (as) who replied, "Do as you have been commanded." Ibrahim (as) decided that he would carry out the command to sacrifice his son, just as he had been commanded to do in his dream.

Ibrahim (as) set off with a heavy heart towards the place of sacrifice. He travelled with his beloved son, Ismael (as), as he made his way through the land. Suddenly, the Shaytan appeared to him and tried to stop him from obeying Allah's command. Shaytan tried many things such as reminding him how much he loved his son.

The Shaytan appeared to Ibrahim (as) three times and each time Ibrahim (as) chased him away by throwing small stones at him. Finally, Ibrahim (as) arrived at the place of sacrifice; he blindfolded himself so that he would not see the face of his beautiful son whom he loved dearly.

After the sacrifice he removed the blindfold. Ibrahim (as) was overjoyed when he saw his son standing there and a sheep had been sacrificed instead. Allah had saved his son from harm and Ibrahim's (as) sacrifice was also accepted. The dream was a test from Allah to see if Ibrahim (as) could sacrifice everything for Allah. Ibrahim (as) had passed this difficult test.

During Hajj, the pilgrims still throw small stones at a place called the Jamarat. They throw seven stones at each of the three pillars, which represent the shaytan. They make a sacrifice afterwards just as Ibrahim (as) did. This is all part of Hajj. In every country, Muslims make Qurbani (sacrifice) and distribute the meat to the poor, their family and friends. This special Qurbani is on this day of Eid ul Adha.

Many children get gifts on Eid. Draw your favourite gift or toy.

LIFE

Allah has given human beings the gift of life which lasts a few years. Some have been given more, some less.

Allah has already decided how long a person will live before he or she is born. Everything has been recorded.

This life is a test to see if a person behaves well and lives according to Allah's law.

Every soul shall die and will be raised up again on the day of Judgement. All mankind will face this day.

Allah will ask about everything we said and did during our life on Earth. We will account for everything.

Heaven is the reward for all good people. In Heaven, they will never die and will live in blissful happiness.

Time to go is what the angel said,

Your last few seconds have gone away

Death is something you didn't expect and your soul is what I need to collect.
You always knew I would come one day and on this Earth you won't forever stay.

The angel continued to come towards me and for extra time I made a last plea.
As it came closer I wanted to scream
- then I woke up it was just a dream!

Holy Qur'an (Surah 103)

This complete surah gives us some very valuable advice. We sometimes forget that life is running very quickly out and that it will come to an end.

Everyone is at a loss with the exception of those people who have the qualities described above. To get true benefit from your time, you must believe in Allah (tawheed) and also do good actions. Both belief and action go hand in hand.

These people also encourage each other to do good by remaining on truth and by being patient.

INTERESTING FACTS!

Islam is the fastest growing religion in the world. More people are accepting Islam than any other religion. It is the fastest growing religion in Europe and America.

The truth of Islam is clearly seen in the Holy Qur'an which has helped improve the lives of billions of humans. Even today, people turn to the Qur'an for guidance and are moved by the words of Allah.

① STORY TIME

ISA's (AS) FIRST MIRACLE

Maryam (as) was a very pious and religious woman. She would spend a lot of time in the worship of Allah and performing salah. She was from a noble family who were descendants of the great prophet Ibrahim (as) through his son Ishaq (as).

Their family also had a great status amongst the people because of their piety and kindness. They also looked after the masjid where people would come and worship Allah. Everyone loved and respected Maryam from her childhood until adulthood. They all knew about her good character and her devotion to Allah's deen. In fact, they had great respect for this family of Imran.

One day, Angel Jibrael appeared to Maryam and gave her good news that Allah was going to bless her with a child. Maryam was shocked at first because she did not have a husband. She was a good woman who never kept company with men. The Angel explained that whenever Allah decides on a matter, He just says to it BE! and it is. Just as Allah created Adam (as) without a mother or father, her son would be born without a father.

Maryam accepted the good news and was soon expecting a child. Deep down she knew that the people would not easily accept that the child was born miraculously - without a father. She was a little worried. However, she was overjoyed that she was blessed with a son who was going to be very pious and a great servant of Allah.

When the child was born she took the child to her people. They were very surprised to see a child in the arms of Maryam. The people began asking many questions about the father and Maryam knew some might not believe her that it was a miracle. She simply pointed to the child. The people were confused and thought how can we talk to a baby.

Baby Isa (as) then spoke from his mothers arms which was his first miracle. He explained to the people that he was a servant of Allah and that he had been granted a book (Injeel). He told them that Allah had made him a prophet and commanded him to perform Salah, give Zakah and show obedience to his mother.

The people were surprised by the baby Isa (as) talking in Maryam's arms. They were overjoyed that this miracle happened in the family of Imran and Maryam remained high in their esteem. They were pleased that Allah had given Maryam such a blessed child who would be a great prophet of Allah.

This was the first miracle of Isa (as) and Allah granted him many miracles throughout his mission. Through these miracles, the people believed in his prophethood and many accepted his teachings.

However, after Isa (as) was taken away from the Earth, the people changed the message and became confused about Isa (as). They began believing in many things that Isa (as) never taught and they began to stray from the straight path. Allah then sent another mighty messenger to teach the people about Allah - Muhammad (pbuh).

In Islam, we hold Isa (as) in the highest esteem. He is a mighty servant and prophet of Allah. We do not believe that he was the son of Allah because Allah does not have any partners or family.

CHALLENGE

At the end of each day, if you have done the challenge, colour in one step

The Challenge

You must tell the truth every time you speak. You can not even tell one white lie but must be truthful in all matters. You must do this until the chart is complete. Remember, always tell the truth.

Always telling the truth is the best quality in every human being. Every nation recognises that telling the truth is a noble action. The Prophet (pbuh) taught us that telling the truth leads to virtue and virtue guides us to paradise. We must make truthfulness one of our virtues.

When all the steps are coloured, you have finished the challenge successfully

THE EARLY DAYS

Abu Hurairah (r) was just a youth when he accepted Islam. He travelled with At-Tufayl (r) to Madina and met Muhammad (pbuh). When Muhammad (pbuh) asked him his name he replied that it was Abdu Shams which means servant of a sun.

Our Prophet (pbuh) gave him a new name of Abdur Rahman (servant of the most Beneficent).

However, this is not the name he was known with.

Abu Hurairah (r) use to look after a cat. He would feed, carry, clean and shelter this cat. The cat became so attached to Abu Hurairah (r) that it would be with him wherever he went. For this reason he became known as Abu Hurairah (father of the cat).

In Madina, he spent all his time in the company of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). Unlike others, he would not go to the markets to earn money or invest his time in other pursuits. His whole life was dedicated to learning from the Prophet (pbuh). In fact, he didn't get married during this time.

His dedication to knowledge meant that he had to suffer much poverty and hardships. Throughout his years of learning he would endure extreme hunger and poverty. However, because of his dedication he was able to learn a great deal from Prophet Muhammad (pbuh), more so than many of the other companions.

Abu Hurairah (r) was unable to write but his cast iron memory ensured that he could learn so much and retain this information for future generation.

Abu Hurairah was seventy eight years old when he passed away.

HADITH CLASSES

The Scholars have divided the hadith into different groups. These groups give us an idea of how accurately the Hadith has been researched and how accurately it has been preserved.

The scholars examined the Hadith, the Sanad and Matn and were able to classify the Hadith.

These groups or classes include:

Sahih (authentic),
Hassan (good)
Da'eef (weak)
Mawdu (Fabricated).

GOOD QUALITIES

Every Muslim should have good character. The teachings of Islam promote kindness and good actions.

A Muslim must be honest and always tell the truth. This is considered the best of conduct.

A Muslim should be pious so must follow the deen of Allah closely and with sincerity.

A Muslim should be considerate and should respect the feelings and rights of other people.

A Muslim should be courageous and do what is right. Even if he or she will suffer personal or financial loss.

Every Muslim should study. They must continually try to improve themselves and use this knowledge to help others.

TICK TOCK

Listen to the silence... tick, tock, tick, tock
- life is running out, like this ticking clock.
As seconds tick on, we're getting old, losing precious seconds, more valuable than gold.

Time doesn't come back and can't be bought.
There's no extra time so don't run short.
The countdown starts at the time of our birth and will only stop with this life on Earth.

Before time finishes and comes to an end,
we need to think deeply and need to amend.
So seize this opportunity whilst its still there and don't waste time, as there's none to spare.

Allah has given us this life as a test and has told us to look after this body. It is a trust from Allah so we should take care of it.

1. How can we look after our body.

2. Tricks with which the Shaytan can mislead us.

3. Actions which will take us towards Jannah.

A big LESSON

Bukhari, Muslim

Write out

making
Wudhu

To perform the five daily prayers (salah) is the duty of every Muslim. The importance of Salah has been emphasised many times in the Qur'an and Hadith. We must make an effort to make the Salah properly and also make Salah at its correct time.

ACTIONS

All our actions take us towards Heaven or towards Hell. This means that actions are either good or bad.

Whenever we do anything, we should check our intentions or the reason we are doing it.

We only take our good and bad deeds into the next life. Everything else remains behind on Earth.

Once our life ends we won't get a chance to do good deeds or repent for our sins. The time to repent is now.

Allah will weigh our deeds to decide who is destined for Heaven and who is destined for Hell.

Allah will forgive the sins of some people and will let some pass with leniency. Allah is the Most Merciful.

"Most people incur loss in respect of two divine bounties: Good health and leisure."

Sahih Bukhari

Of all the blessings Allah has given us, most people fail to take full advantage of these two:

1. Good health is a great blessing of Allah. We should take advantage of this by doing good work in this life for the Hereafter.
2. Free time is also a great blessing, we should not waste it by watching TV and playing computer games. Instead, we should develop our life and improve our knowledge of Islam.

We only appreciate how great these blessings were when Allah takes them away. So start using them now and take advantage of them.

the future

The new generation of Muslims are living in an environment which, in many respects, promotes values which go against the teachings and spirit of our Islamic way of life. This highlights the need for the Muslim community to impart the noble teachings of our beloved deen into the young souls and future of our Ummah.

This book is a small contribution to help make Islam a reality in the lives of the youth and encourage them to tread on a path of piety and spiritual enlightenment.

This book is just a drop in the ocean but the real work still sits with the parents and teacher. May Allah make it easy for them to fulfil this responsibility (Ameen).
